

1 LAIR OF A LADY

South African beauty Wendy Chait has claimed her place in the market with her 50s retro salon, the Petticoat Parlour in Green Point. Mixing the best in professional beauty therapy with an element of entertainment, every corner of the salon evokes the best of that era. Feel like sexy Marilyn or elegant Audrey and feast your eyes and taste buds on the pink leather booth, milkshakes, soda pops and red velvet cupcakes. This gorgeous establishment oozes style and wonder, taking you back to the age of graceful beauty and pop culture. For more information visit www.petticoatparlour.co.za

3 MAJESTIC MANSION

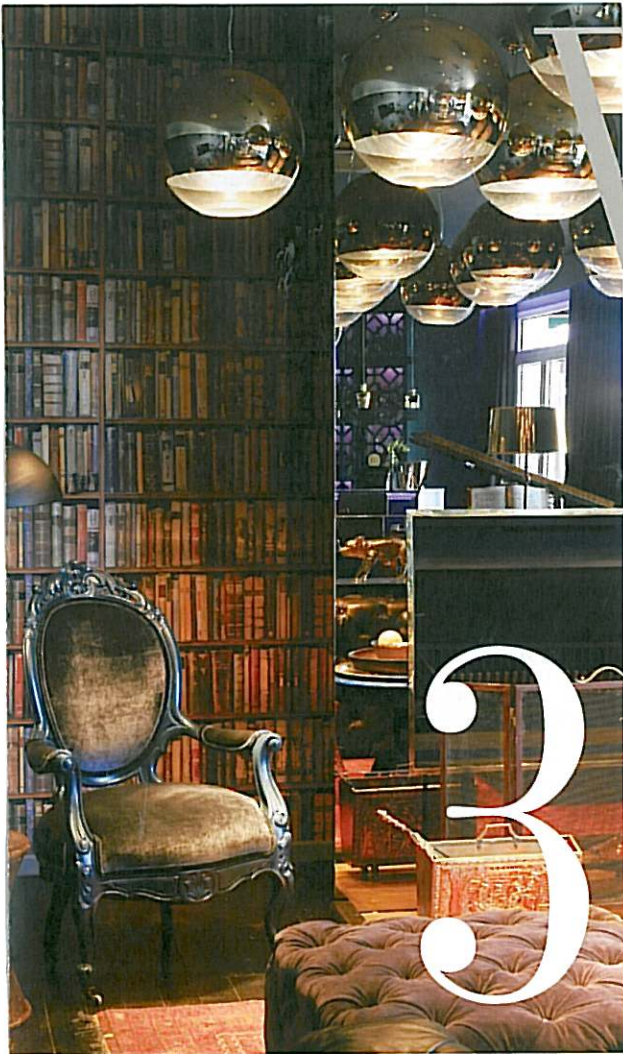

With its recent R10 million makeover; Majeka House in Stellenbosch has just joined the list of exclusive establishments offering high-end pampering and design. Leading the way in five-star luxury in Stellenbosch, Majeka House boasts its smart-dining restaurant, Makaron, with Chef Anri Diener offering an innovative and inspiring spread. With a new lounge area and bar; known as The M Bar; a cigar lounge and the Sanctuary Spa boasting an exquisite Himalayan Crystal Salt bed and offering colour therapy, guests can enjoy pure pampering and relaxation. For more information visit www.majekahouse.co.za

2 ROYALE REVELRY

The new "Super Club" in Johannesburg, Arena Royale, is a spacious party spot with its chic white interior, chandeliers and large dance floor – which make for some seriously stylish clubbing experiences. With top local and international DJs providing first class entertainment at Arena Royale, the nightlife in South Africa just got hotter. Catering for the more mature and glamorous, Arena Royale is the new place to be seen. For more information visit www.arenaroyale.co.za

WHERE TO SPEND IT

Summer celebrations come with style and sophistication at these new locations.
By Christine Grové

4 DARK AND DRAMATIC
The talents of award-winning South African fashion designer, David Tlale, have wowed the fashion world for over eight years. With his bold and daring collections gracing runways in New York, Europe and South Africa, he now introduces his own boutique store at The Michelangelo Towers. This bespoke brand provides women with an air of dramatic beauty, audacious elegance and a unique personality for any high-end occasion. Only a limited amount of each range will be available, keeping it a truly bespoke brand. For more information visit www.davidthlale.com